Champagne

The person credited for the creation of champagne in 17th century France was actually a near-blind Benedictine monk named Dom Pierre Perignon.

A cellar master in the Champagne region,

Dom stumbled upon the fermentation of the wine due to changes in the weather (a chilly winter combined with a warmer spring).

Initially frustrated by the presence of the “bulles” (French for “bubbles”) he began to blend grapes, which resulted in the first white wine ever produced.

Eventually tasting the wine – bubbles and all – legend has it that the monk exclaimed: “Come quickly, brothers! I’m tasting stars!”

MERLOT

Painted Rock sits on a spectacular beach overlooking the eastern shore of Skaha Lake. This 60-acre property has a unique microclimate that is particularly suited to the production of premium wines.

It is now 13 years since the planting of Painted Rock's estate and the property is living up to its potential in every regard. Winning 2014/2015 InterVin International "Winery of the Year" and recent generous reviews in Jancis Robinson's newsletter validate the progress made by the team and steel its resolve. At Painted Rock there is a firm belief that by aiming highly and working cooperatively, British Columbia wines can compete with the finest in the world.

La Stella

MERLOT

Maestoso is Lastella's way of making a bold statement. This is a wine with the flamboyant style of a Lamborghini or a renaissance cathedral. Maestoso is not trying to be coy, subtle or understated; rather it's about confidence, being outspoken and unapologetic. This is a wine crafted and polished to a high gloss finish with no rough edges and no punches pulled Aromas of ripe red fruit and florals jump out of the glass with raspberries, cherries, blackberries, and rose water. Rounded and rich on the palate with ripe, silky tannins with further flavors of cracked pepper, vanilla and toasted coconut. Lingering pepper and baking spices on the finish.

Le Vieux Pin

SYRAH

Named for the solitary majestic old growth pine of their Oliver estate, Le Vieux Pin sits perched amidst the famed vineyards of the Black Sage Bench: Canada's sole pocket desert, located in the South of British Columbia's Okanagan Valley. Since releasing their first vintage in 2005, Le Vieux Pin has captured the essence of traditional French winemaking, along with the bold New World character distinct to the region.

Considered by the national wine industry to be a leading Syrah producer, the winery uses low input viticulture and non-interventionist winemaking to make exclusive vintages that carry with them a sense of time and place.

Painted Rock

BORDEAUX BLEND

Each vineyard block was individually hand-picked and berry sorted. Blocks were then broken into small batches, cold soaked on their skins for four days and fermented for an additional 21 days on their skins in tank with twice daily pump overs. All batches are then barrel aged for 18 months in 30% new French oak. The barrels that were blended to create the Red Icon were chosen first for their specific attributes. The wine was blended prior to bottling, unfiltered.

BORDEAUX BLEND

The Legacy Collection represents Proprietor Anthony von Mandl's vision to showcase the Okanagan Valley's diverse microclimates.

Each wine is the pinnacle expression of more than three decades of viticulture, sustainable farming, and winemaking experience in our estate vineyards. Exceptionally limited production, each of these rare wines see attention to detail in the extreme.
